Ms. Maureen Pinkney, Mayor

Box 340, #1-385 Birch Ave
100 Mile House, BC, V0K 2E0

Dear Maureen,

Proposed ORV Bylaw Providing Access to Selected 100 Mile House Streets and Roads.

Reference: Letter of Support from 100 Mile House Snowmobile Club RE: Proposed ORV Bylaw Providing Access to Selected 100 Mile House Streets and Roads, Dated 10 June 2026

Further to the Letter of Support at reference, we, as representatives of the 100 Mile House Snowmobile Club and provincial non-profit recreational organization, would like to confirm that the definition of Off Road Vehicles (ORV) being stipulated in the subject bylaw proposal does include snowmobiles. Allowing snowmobile access onto the same selected streets and roads as any other types of ORVs included in the bylaw would promote year-round support to both tourism and local recreational opportunities in the jurisdiction of the District of 100 Mile House, and the multi-use recreational trails throughout the South Cariboo. Concurrently, it would acknowledge the evolution of the Gold Rush Snowmobile Trail (GRST), which was originally developed for snowmobile riding, and has evolved into a multi-use recreational trail. By having the GRST link-up with urban trails and pathways, users are connected with community amenities and services, contributing to the support of local businesses and boosting the dollars spent in our own community.

It is suspected that the main reason to potentially restrict snowmobiles from accessing the town of 100 Mile House streets and roads would be the fear of damage to paved surfaces. Based on consultation with our club members and other snowmobile enthusiasts, we want to clarify that riders will only travel into town if there is adequate snow. Sufficient snow coverage is essential for proper engine cooling and preventing damage to the sleds, and it ensures that streets and parking lots remain protected. Riders actively avoid riding on bare pavement, as no enthusiast would intentionally risk damaging their expensive equipment.

I have personally been a snowmobile rider for many years, originally riding in the provinces of Ontario and Quebec, where governments and municipalities widely permit snowmobiles to operate on designated portions of roads and streets to safely access town businesses, restaurants, and local services. From my experience, I have never been aware of validated concerns that operating a snowmobile on streets or parking lots could cause damage in communities. I have always utilized the routes in a way that I believed was standard practice for winter recreation and community accessibility.

In addition, an important factor to consider is the significant difference in the density of population between the area surrounding Ottawa, where I used to ride, and the South Cariboo region. The suburbs of Ottawa accounts for over 5,000 snowmobile club members from 5 different snowmobile clubs, including West Carleton Snowmobile Trails association Inc, Carleton Regional Snowmobile Club, Eastern Ontario Snowmobile Club, Osgoode Carleton Snowmobile Trail Club and Beautiful Eastern Association of Snowmobile Trails. Whereas in comparison, the South Cariboo region has only approximately 450 club members, including the 100 Mile House Snowmobile Club, the Interlakes Snowmobile Club, the MICA Mountain Riders Association, the Watch Lake-Green Lake Community Association and the Williams Lake Powder Kings Snowmobile Club. With this limited number of riders, I do not believe that extensive damage to private and public properties should be a major concern.

To reiterate the purpose of this letter, I am writing to respectfully request your consideration regarding the inclusion of snowmobiles in the proposed bylaw. We request that 100 Mile House does not specifically exclude snowmobiles, as they are classified as ORVs. Instead we recommend leaving the decision of accessing the town amenities to individual snowmobile riders, based on snow accumulations and road conditions. Furthermore, if the bylaw is approved on a trial period basis, the inclusion of snowmobiles could be revised once the trial period expires.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the 100 Mile House Snowmobile Club,

Marc DeChamplain
100 Mile House Snowmobile Club, President
